TRADE MEN DISAPPROVE SALARY FOR AUDITOR

Law Committee of Board of Trade Will Submit Adverse Report at Annual Meeting.

In the official announcement of the Board of Trade, giving notice of its annual meeting November 8 at the New Willard, special attention is called to the report of the committee on law, which will be the only one read, with the exception of the papers of the officers.

The committee places special stress on the results of its investigations of the bill now before the House, which fixes the remuneration of the auditor of the District Supreme Court at a stated salary, doing away with the present reimbursement in fees.

The bill meets with the unanimous disapproval of every member of the committee and they also claim that an overwhelming objection to the bill exists among the attorneys who have business before the court auditor. In their investigations, the Board of Trade committee had listened to the arguments of W. W. Spaulding, acting for the committee of the House of Representatives which is championing the measure.

The report declares: "We feel that litigation will fare better under the present system than under the proposed salary system. . . . It is improper and unjust that fees of the office taken from litigants should constitute a revenue for the District, and that it is 'equally repugnant to our ideas of justice that the general taxpayer should be called upon to pay the expenses of private disputes which should be borne as far as practicable by the litigants themselves.'"

It adds that a fixed salary would enhance the burden imposed upon the litigant and also would decrease the efficiency of the auditor's office.

Other objections are given in that the hours of the auditor and his assistants as stipulated by the bill would be annoying to members of the bar and that the auditor would be hampered in his work in many ways by the enactment of such a proposed law.

The report will be read by Arthur A. Birney, chairman.

Reports of the officers will be followed by the election of the new board of directors.

At the Theaters Next Week.

Columbia—"The Beautiful Adventure."

"The Beautiful Adventure," which Charles Frohman will offer at the Columbia Theater next week, is an exposition of the French school of playwriting. Written by the authors of "Love Watches," it sheds a new light on the eternal triangle which is the subject matter of about half of our drama, but suffers mainly through trite handling.

Messrs. De Foe and De Calais have worked out a story that is audacious and

Belasco—"The Whirl of the World."

The Winter Garden entertainment, "The Whirl of the World," said to be the best extravaganza spectacle on the stage today, comes to the Belasco Theater next week. It has to its credit successful runs of five months in New York, sixteen weeks in Chicago, and one month each in Boston and Philadelphia. It is said to combine music, spectacle, dance and travesty. The book of lyrics is by Harold Atteridge, and some bits from the pen of Sigmund Romberg. There are two acts and twelve scenes. In the cast of 125 are Eugene, William Howard, Miss Chaplin, Elizabeth Goodall, Lucille Cavanaugh, Juliette Lippe, Moon and Morris, Burrell Barbaretto, John T. Murray, Clarence Harvey, Lewis J. Cody, Edward Cutler, Weyl Parker, and a large chorus.

National—"The Queen of the Movies."

"The Queen of the Movies," under the direction of Thomas W. Ryley, whose previous successes with "Florinda" and "The Belle of Mayfair," have made him famous, comes to the National Theater next week.

This much-praised musical comedy production returns here with the indorsement of seventeen weeks at the Globe Theater, New York, and seasons at Boston and Chicago.

"The Queen of the Movies" contains a company of eighty-five people, headed by May De Moulton, Prank Moulton, there is plenty of fun, dancing, life, and laughter in this production of Mr. Ryley's, and the dancing is remarkable. The Powder-puff girls, who were trained by Julian Mitchell, being the big feature of the dancing chorus.

Poll—"The Conspiracy."

"The Conspiracy," a story of New York life, dealing with the mysteries of "The Scarlet Band," will be the offering of the Poll Players next week. This successful play, which enjoyed an all-season run at the Garrick Theater, New York, with Jane Grey in the stellar role, tells the story of Margaret Holt and her efforts to thwart the activities of a group of criminals known as the Scarlet Band. In order to get information Margaret goes to work as a stenographer for Pedro Alvarez, the leader of the band. The band has entered into a conspiracy to kill Victor Holt, assistant district attorney, and Margaret's brother. How Margaret checks out the band and saves herself from seemingly certain destruction constitutes a thrilling stage story.

B. F. Keiths—High-class Vaudeville.

At the B. F. Keiths theater next week Julius Slegner and company, in his musical comedy-drama, "Warning," will present a new production, "The Edge of the World," with Violet Hope, one of the leading features of the bill. Other attractions will be Max Melville and Robert Higgins; Albert Von Tilzer, assisted by Dorothy Nord; the three Langdons, and the Acro brothers.

Next Sunday at the concert the program will present the attractions of this week's bill.

Prince Ghosh Lecture.

Prince Ghosh, who addressed an interested audience in the Belasco Theater last Sunday evening, when he told of "The Marvels of India," will speak at the same place next Sunday at 8:30 p. m. His subject is "The Romance of India," and it will be illustrated with slides of the same high standard as in his first lecture.

Prince Ghosh is a man of striking personality on the platform, and as one critic truly said after hearing the "Marvels of India" lecture, he throws an entirely new spotlight on his native country.

John Kendrick Bangs Lecture.

Of the literary men who are scheduled to appear in the Belasco Theater lecture series this year none will be more heartily welcomed than John Kendrick Bangs, the inventor of "The Genial Idiot," and the discoverer of "A Houseboat on the Bay." He is announced to give his "Salubrity I Have Met" on Monday next at 4:30.

This lecture is a running talk about the more or less famous men and women Mr. Bangs has known in the course of his career. It includes gossip anecdotes of statesmen, poets, novelists, philanthropists, and others, and is said to be full of the keen humor which characterizes all Mr. Bangs' work in the lecture and literary fields.

At the Gayety Theater next week, Max Spiegel's latest burlesque comedy, "The Winning Widow," will be presented. This is the work of Ben Holmes and "The Winning Widow" was written expressly for the purpose of giving ample scope to rest from three months at the Lyceum Theater, New York. "The Beautiful Adventure" is the first of the present season hits to be placed on view in Washington.

The cast is of unusual excellence and is headed by Miss Ann Murdock, who has achieved the triumph of her career in the leading feminine role of a girl who elopes her wedding day, leaving only her bridal veil as an explanation to the outraged bridegroom-to-be. Others in the cast are Mrs. Thomas Warren, Ernest Layford, Jerome Patrick, Annie Edmund, Janet Slater, Edward Fielding, Mercita Ramonda, Herbert Ayling, Edgar Moch, Francis Landry, Amy Veneas, John Holland, George Hubbard, and Conrad Cantan.

SLEMP VICTOR IN VIRGINIA.

Incomplete Returns Give Him Majority of 500 to 700.
Richmond, Va., Nov. 4.—Incomplete returns from the Tenth Congressional district show that C. Bascom Slomp, Republican, has been re-elected to Congress by a majority of 500 to 700. Democrats lost in several counties which were normally Democratic.

In all other districts Democrats were easy winners, though the vote was unusually light. Compulsory education carried in Richmond and Henrico County by a majority of more than ten to one.

COMMODORES ENJOY SMOKER.
Big Year Predicted for Eastern Power Boat Club.

The annual meeting of the Eastern Power Boat Club was held last evening in the clubrooms located on the Anacostia River near the Navy Yard bridge. The meeting brought to a close the open season of this club. It was said that during the winter a number of indoor affairs would be held at the clubrooms.

At the close of the business session a smoker was enjoyed.

Commodore William Wagner states that a number of new speed boats had been completed during the last few weeks and predicted a fine season for the club next year. It was also said that most of the former members of the Washington Yacht Club had become affiliated with the Eastern club. The proposition of enlarging its quarters also was discussed and it was said that the club could admit several new members if it had the space to accommodate the additional boats.

"Anniversary of Women's Work" was observed by the congregation of the Anacostia M. E. Church last night in connection with the anniversary exercises being held this week. Rev. James Shera Montgomery, pastor of the Metropolitan M. E. Church, was the speaker. A special musical program was rendered.

Boston, Nov. 4.—David I. Walsh, Democrat, has been re-elected governor by a plurality of upward of 8,000. Lieut. Gov. Barry, with the rest of the Democratic ticket, was defeated. The Progressives polled only about a quarter of last year's vote.

The Republican sweep carried in the Congressional representation from Massachusetts also. The next Congress will have twelve instead of eight Republicans and four instead of eight Democrats.

Shrivel, Vanish

It's the New Way, and You'll Forget You Ever Had Corns.

"I drops put on in 2 seconds, corn shrivels, comes clean off." That's the marvelous story of "GETS-IT," the new plan corn cure. Nothing can be simpler for the cure of corns—and it never fails.

No Corns to Bump No Pain, If You Use "GETS-IT."

That's why millions of people are using "GETS-IT" today and throwing away their tussle yesterday, sticky toe, toe-calling salvers, and "wrapping out" that make a bundle around the toe and choke it into pain by pressing either on or around the corn. There is nothing to stick to your stocking, nothing to cause inflammation or rawness, nothing to press on or around the corn. You apply in 2 seconds. No more knives, rasors, scissors, or files, with their blood-poison dangers. Try "GETS-IT" for that corn, callous, wart, or bunion.
